1. POLICY STATEMENT

It is a long established democratic principle that outgoing elected bodies should not use public resources for election campaigning, nor make decisions which may unreasonably, inappropriately, or unnecessarily bind an incoming Council.

This policy affirms Council's commitment to fair and democratic elections, and adherence to this principle. This policy includes a commitment to comply with the requirements of Section 91A of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999.

2. APPLICATION OF POLICY

This Policy applies to:

- each periodic election of members of the Council under the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999; and
- each general election of members of the Council held pursuant to a proclamation or notice under the Local Government Act 1999.

This Policy does not apply to:

- supplementary elections.

In this Policy:

- All references to 'Council Members' should be read as including the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor; and
- All references to the Chief Executive Officer should be read as including an Acting Chief Executive Officer and his/her delegate.

3. OUTLINE

This Policy applies to all general elections<sup>1</sup>.

4. 'ELECTION PERIOD'

During an 'election period', Council must assume a 'Caretaker mode', which means that it:

- must avoid designated decisions which are prohibited by section 91A of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 (refer clause 6.2);

An 'election period':

- (a) commences on the day of the close of nominations for the election; and

5. PURPOSE

During a Local Government 'election period', Council will assume a 'Caretaker mode', and will avoid actions and decisions which could be perceived as intended to affect the results of an election or otherwise to have a significant impact on or unnecessarily bind the incoming Council.

The purpose of this Policy is to clearly set the parameters that Council will operate within during a Caretaker period. Caretaker provisions are required pursuant to section 91A of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 and are generally regarded as necessary for the promotion of transparent and accountable government during an 'election period'.

6.2 'Designated decisions' prohibited by the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999

The following table outlines those decisions which are expressly prohibited by section 91A of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999.

Designated Decisions
(a)	A decision relating to the employment or remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer, (other than a decision to appoint an acting Chief Executive Officer) other than a decision of a kind excluded from the definition of "designated decision" by regulation.
(b)	A decision to terminate the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer
(c)	A decision to enter into a contract, arrangement or understanding (other than a prescribed contract) the total value of which exceeds whichever is the greater of $100 000 or 1% of the Council's revenue from rates in the preceding financial year, other than a decision of a kind excluded from the definition of "designated decision" by regulation. A "prescribed contract" means a contract entered into by the Council for the purpose of undertaking road construction or road maintenance or drainage works.
(d)	A decision allowing the use of Council resources for the advantage of a particular candidate or group of candidates (other than a decision that allows the equal use of Council resources by all candidates for election), other than a decision of a kind excluded from the definition of "designated decision" by regulation.

Council notes that the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 stipulates that any designated decision made by the Council during the 'election period' without an exemption from the Minister is invalid. Furthermore, it also notes that the Council is liable to pay compensation to any person who suffers loss or damage as a result of acting in good faith in reliance on such an invalid designated decision.

Council, if faced with extraordinary circumstances, may apply in writing to the Minister for an exemption. Council further notes that if the Minister chooses to grant an exemption it may be subject to any conditions or limitations that the Minister considers appropriate.

6.3 Scheduling consideration of designated decisions

The Chief Executive Officer must ensure that 'designated decisions' are not scheduled for consideration during the 'election period'.

6.4 Decisions made prior to an 'election period'

This Policy applies to actual decisions made during an 'election period', not the announcement of decisions made prior to the 'election period'.

7. USE OF COUNCIL RESOURCES

Council notes that Section 91A(8)(d) of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 requires Council to prohibit the use of Council resources for the advantage of a particular candidate or group of candidates. This includes a candidate or candidates who are currently elected Members of the Council.

Council resources cover a wide range of personnel, goods, services, information and opportunities and may include:

- materials published by Council;
- attendance and participation at functions and events;
- access to Council information; and
- media services issues.

Council Members and staff will ensure that due propriety is observed in the use of Council resources and must exercise appropriate judgement in this regard.

Council resources, including officers, support staff, hospitality services, equipment and stationery must be used exclusively for normal Council business during an 'election period' and, must not be used in connection with an election other than uses strictly relating to the election process.

7.1 Council Publications During an 'Election Period'

- (a) print, publish or distribute; or any advertisement, handbill, pamphlet or notice that contains 'electoral material' during an 'election period'.

process by way of information, education or publicity, or materials produced by or on behalf of the returning officer for the purposes of conducting an election.

This Policy does not prevent publications by Council which merely announce the holding of an election or relate only to the election process itself for the purposes of Section 12(b) of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 or otherwise. Council may provide information, education and publicity designed to promote public participation in the electoral processes for its area, and to inform potential voters about the candidates who are standing for election in its area. It will not publish material that refers to, or comments on, an issue submitted to or is otherwise before voters in connection with the election.

Council Members are, however, permitted to publish campaign material on their own behalf, but cannot assert for that material to be originating from, or authorised by, Council (eg by the use of Council logos).

7.1.3 Other Council publications

Insofar as any Council publications, such as the Annual Report, are required to be published during an 'election period', the content contained within them regarding Council Members will be restricted to that strictly required by the Local Government Act 1999 and Regulations.

Council publications produced before an 'election period' containing material which might be construed as electoral material will not be circulated or displayed during the 'election period'. However, they may be made available to members of the public on request.

7.3 Access to Council Information

Council Members continue during an 'election period' to have a statutory right to access Council information relevant to the performance of their functions as a Council Member. This right should be exercised with caution and limited to matters that the Council is dealing with within the objectives and intent of this Policy. Any Council information so accessed that is not publicly available must not be used for election purposes.

All candidates (including those that are Council Members) have equal rights of access to public information relevant to their election campaigns from Council administration. Neither Council Members nor candidates will be provided with information or advice from Council staff that might be perceived to support an election campaign, and there shall be transparency in the provision of all information and advice during an 'election period'.

7.3.1 Information and briefing material

Information and briefing material prepared or secured by staff for a Council Member during an 'election period' must be necessary to the carrying out of the Council Member's role and, where appropriate, provided to any candidate seeking the same information.
