The District Council of Franklin Harbour has adopted a Code of Conduct for Council Members. This Code of Conduct is a public declaration of the principles of good conduct and standards of behaviour that the Members of the District Council of Franklin Harbour Council have agreed to demonstrate as elected community representatives. 3.2 Referral of Complaints

Illegal Behaviour

Where there has been an allegation of criminal or illegal behaviour, this will not be investigated by the Council under this Code of Conduct but will, instead, be referred to the appropriate authority. For example, allegations of corruption will be referred to the Anti Corruption Branch of SAPOL; allegations of other illegal behaviour may be referred to SAPOL or to the Minister for State Local Government Relations.

To ensure any future investigation is not compromised; the Council Member about whom the complaint is made will not be advised of the receipt of the complaint by the Council, or its referral to the investigation authority. Council will not be advised until after the investigating authority has completed its investigation.

Local Government Governance Panel

Where there has been an allegation of breach of the Council's Code of Conduct by a Council Member that is not criminal or illegal, the complaint may be referred to the independent Local Government Governance Panel by the Chief Executive Officer or Mayor under this policy without further reference to Council. (Alternatively Council may choose to only refer a matter to the Governance Panel by resolution of the Council)

Complaints referred to the Governance Panel will specify the ground/s of the complaint, set out the circumstances of the complaint and be accompanied by any other material that is available to support the complaint.

Following assessment of the complaint by the Governance Panel and after considering the results of any investigations, a report will be prepared and provided by the Chair and will recommend to the respective Council appropriate action in relation to the matter, which may include mediation, specific training or counselling, and/or the issuing of an apology. The report may also provide the Council with recommended changes to its Code of Conduct to address a particular issue.

The following processes will be followed with respect to assessment and investigation of complaints depending on the level of seriousness:

3.2.1 The Governance Panel may determine that no further action should be taken with respect to an alleged breach where the Panel Chair determines that the allegation is frivolous or vexatious. In this case the Panel Chair will prepare a report to that effect and provide it to the Mayor.

3.2.2 If the Panel Chair identifies issues of substance that warrant further investigation:

- The investigation will be a thorough and balanced assessment of the available evidence regarding the alleged breach, the relevant circumstances prevailing at the time of the alleged breach and any other factors deemed relevant to making a fair and reasonable judgement about the matter

- The Council Member the subject of the allegation(s) will be provided with a reasonable opportunity to explain his/her actions and to make a written submission on the allegations.
- The Panel Chair must provide the Council with a final written report on the investigation undertaken within fourteen (14) days of receiving written submissions from the person who made the complaint and/or the Council Member who is the subject of the complaint, or such longer period as the Council may determine.
- If the final report is not received from the Panel Chair within fourteen (14) days the Council will ascertain from the Panel Chair the time frame within which the Council may expect the final reports. If the Panel Chair forms the view that additional time will be needed to conclude the investigation and finalise the report the Panel Chair should bring this to the attention of the Council at the earliest convenience, but at the very least, before the expiration of the fourteen (14) day timeframe.
- If the final report makes recommendations that punitive in nature and recommends the application of penalties, the Council Member, the subject of the allegation(s), will be provided with a reasonable opportunity to comment in writing upon the contents and findings contained in the report and on the appropriateness of the proposed penalty. Such comment must be taken into account by the Council. The complainant is not able to comment, as procedural fairness attaches to the Council Member not the complainant.
- The report delivered to the Council is final. There is no right of appeal on the report of the Governance Panel.
- The final report will be presented at a Council meeting in confidence (ie public excluded), subject to Section 90(3) of the Local Government Act 1999 being satisfied.
- After receipt of the final report from the Governance Panel, the Council must convey to the Council Member who is the subject of the complaint, a copy of the investigation report and a copy of Council's resolution in relation to the report.
- The final report can be subject to a Section 91(7) order of confidentiality, with the exception that the report has been provided to both the Council Member and the complainant concerned.
